This strategic expansion is fully in line with Rainbow Partners Group's "Ambition 2027" growth plan, which aims to double its workforce and strengthen its international presence within the next five years. Singapore, a key financial hub in Asia, represents a crucial step in supporting our clients in their global projects and seizing opportunities within the region's banking and financial ecosystem.

Already established in Paris, Lyon, New York, Montreal, London, Geneva, Casablanca, Porto, and Lisbon, QUANTEAM is taking a significant leap forward by setting up in one of the world's largest financial hubs. This local presence will enable us to support our long-standing clients—BNP Paribas, CACIB, ENGIE, etc.—in their international projects and expand our impact within Singapore's economic landscape » explains Julien BENSOUSSAN, Founder and CEO of Rainbow Partners Group and QUANTEAM.

« Our ambition is to extend our consulting expertise, not only in Financial Services but also in strategic sectors such as Technology and Healthcare, which hold a key position in Singapore » adds Catherine REMEUR, General Manager at QUANTEAM SINGAPORE.

« Thanks to the combined expertise of the Rainbow Partners Group—particularly in Blockchain, Data, AI, Digital Transformation, Procurement Transformation, and Cybersecurity—we are well-positioned to support our clients globally in their innovation and transformation projects, leveraging our historical dual expertise in Business and IT » emphasizes Catherine REMEUR.

« And for candidates, the Group's ability to offer international mobility and career opportunities to its consultants is a real advantage—one that I am sure will inspire some to embark on a new adventure in Asia ».
